Procedure for Recognition of Prior Learning/Current Competence

Recognition of prior learning/current competence procedure
If a person considers that they have already acquired the competencies of the specific NCAS/NOAS training program, they may apply to have these skills recognised.

The RPL/RCC Assessment is carried out when the applicant provides evidence of the relevant competencies; completes the RPL/RCC application form and forwards this to the Sport Development Manager at Surfing Australia for processing.

How can prior learning be recognised?
There are many ways that you can show evidence of the competencies you hold. RPL/RCC can only be granted on current evidence, that is, work that has been completed within the last two years. Some examples of evidence that can be provided to demonstrate your competencies include:

- Copies of certificates, qualifications achieved from other courses, school or tertiary results
- Statements outlining courses and/or study that you have undertaken and the learning outcomes/competencies achieved from these.
- Resume of experience
- Reports from people within your sport
- Relevant work samples e.g. training programs, videos of your coaching.
- Evidence of home/self-directed study which may include a list of recent readings, synopsis of seminars attended, reports of own research/analysis undertaken.

An RPL/RCC assessment panel will assess the application. The panel should comprise people who are experienced in the areas of:

- Coach/Official Education
- Assessment
- It is also desirable that they are accredited at a higher level than the RPL/RCC applicant.

RPL/RCC procedure
The following sequential process has been established as the procedure to be followed when a person wishes to obtain credit of prior learning or current competencies through RPL/RCC.
Step 1 – Complete this application form and send to Surfing Australia
Applicants will need to gather all relevant supporting documentation and complete the RPL/RCC application form. Forward this with supporting documentation to the National Coaching or Officiating Coordinator at Surfing Australia:
Jim Hughes - Sport Development Manager: PO Box 400, Thirroul NSW, 2515, Australia.

Step 2 – Assessment
The application will be reviewed by an RPL/RCC assessment panel. The panel will compare the evidence provided by the applicant with the competencies required for the training program. A judgement will be made about whether the applicant wholly or partially meets the requirements. The panel should check that the evidence submitted conforms to the following RPL/RCC principles:

• Validity (is the evidence relevant?)
• Sufficiency (is there enough evidence?)
• Authenticity (is the evidence a true reflection of the candidate?)
• Currency (is the evidence recent – obtained within the past 2 years?).

The RPL/RCC assessment panel will complete and return the assessors’ reports with recommendations for the applicant.

Step 3 – Notification
The applicant will be notified of the decision within two months of receiving the application (although an application will usually only take 2 weeks).

In the event of partial completion of the competencies, the panel will outline which competencies still need to be achieved, and preferably what evidence is still required.
Options include:

• Supply further supporting documentation
• Complete certain assessment activities
• Complete parts of a training program
• Work with a mentor to obtain the required competencies.

Successful applicants for RPL/RCC will receive the appropriate certification/accreditation, and where appropriate, will be placed on the NCAS/NOAS coaching database.

Step 4 – Appeal
The applicant has the right to appeal the RPL/RCC assessment panel’s decision, if they believe the decision is unfair, unjust or if the panel has misinterpreted the evidence.
In the case of an appeal, a new assessment panel will be established. The new assessment panel will review all material available and make a decision. The RPL/RCC review assessment panel will notify the applicant of the decision within six months of receiving the appeal. The decision of the RPL/RCC review assessment panel will be final.
